

DIVORCE FOR ARTIST BROWNE

Wife of Prominent Chicago Painter Leaves.

Members of Art Colony Expect Separation.

Incompatibility of Temperament the Cause.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Temperamental and other differences have brought about a separation and threaten a divorce between a couple prominent in Chicago's art colony.

Mrs. Charles Frances Browne has left her husband for an extended trip in the West. Her brother, Lorado Taft, declared tonight that the primary cause was ill-health, but did not deny that a divorce was expected to be the ultimate result of the separation. Mr. and Mrs. Browne, married some years ago, have been supposedly happy. But friends say that differences have arisen from "incompatibility of temperament."

Mr. Browne was born at Natick, Mass., on May 21, 1859. He studied at the Boston Art Museum and the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, and at the Ecole des Beaux Arts in Paris, since coming to Chicago he has been instructor and lecturer at the Art Institute, editor of Brush and Pencil, and exhibitor at many national and international exhibitions.

Mrs. Browne is a sister of Mrs. Hamilton Garland. She and her husband are close friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clarkson, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Bartlett and Arthur Heun.

REVENGE SOUGHT WITH DYNAMITE.

LABORERS MENACE NEW YORK IN BLOWING UP VIADUCT.

Outrage Committed by Malcontents Who Took Structure Two Years in Building—Detonation Heard Throughout Manhattan—Several Persons Cut by Falling Glass.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, March 31.—A heavy charge of dynamite, said to have been placed by dissatisfied laborers recently employed in the construction of a viaduct over the Hoboken tracks, was exploded with a tremendous crash at 2:15 this morning, blowing one of the supporting pillars of the structure and shattering every window in the neighborhood for a radius of a quarter of a mile.

A number of persons are known to have been cut by falling glass and plaster, but as yet no fatalities are reported.

The rumble of the explosion was heard throughout Manhattan and far into the Long Island suburbs, and from the various police stations were many answering questions as to the nature of the explosion and its whereabouts.

As soon as the source of the detonation had been proved, the reserves from the Hoboken police stations were sent to the scene, as were a number of ambulances.

The neighborhood of Willow avenue, where the explosion occurred, is thrown into panic, and scantily dressed men and women rushed into the streets in terror.

An investigation showed that the charges of dynamite had been placed at the base of one of the steel upright supports and that the force of the explosion had completely torn it from its concrete foundation.

It is said that recently there had been minor troubles among the workmen employed in the construction of the viaduct and that the outrage may have been perpetrated by some of the malcontents in revenge for a fancied wrong.

The viaduct, which has been two years in building, is a stone structure, half a mile long, connecting Hoboken with East Hoboken over an area of seven acres.

No estimate has as yet been placed on the damage caused by the explosion, but it is believed it will amount to several thousand dollars.

LAND SCHEMER ARRESTED.

Owen in Bad Following Collapse of Mexican Ventures—More Than a Million Lost.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

INDIANAPOLIS, March 31.—William D. Owen, whose arrest at Augusta, Ga., is reported today, operated Mexican business land schemes in which more than a million dollars was invested in small parcels of stock, taken mostly by persons attracted by glittering, full-page advertisements.

The most prominent companies which Owen operated were the Ubersa Plantation Company of Boston and Indianapolis. Four of these companies were in liquidation.

Owen was a Christian minister. His oratorical ability introduced him to the political arena and in 1885 he was elected to Congress from Indiana. Later, he was appointed Commissioner of Immigration. It was while he was Commissioner of Immigration that he fell in with some Mexican conspirators.

MEXICAN INDIANS KILL COLLECTORS OF TAXES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHIHUAHUA (Mex.) March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Demanding exorbitant taxes on work oxen and horses under threat of confiscating lands for non-payment, a tax collector by Temosachic Indians and Mexican ranchers at San Andreas, this State, who are now in open revolt against the State government.

Following the killing, the Indians immediately tore down the telegraph wires, cutting off all communication with Chihuahua, the capital, and with Gov. Creel, former Ambassador to the United States. News of the uprising was telephoned from Temosachic to Ocampo, and from there to Guzman on the Pacific Coast, before communication could be reached with the capital.

Two special trains bearing regular troops and rurales heavily armed and well provisioned were rushed to the scene, but so serious is the situation that reinforcements have been sent, the district being considered a veritable powder magazine.

Increase of the tax to three cents daily on oxen and horses is given as the cause of the uprising. It being said the object was to make a tax prohibitive that officials might confiscate land and increase their holdings.

The country is thickly populated.

On the Blue Funnel liner Onfa the Chinese firemen are working in the hold with the engineers, driving the winches, and, with the aid of a longshore gang which was got together, the vessel's big cargo is being discharged. Both these vessels were working this morning.

The Montague started loading at 1 o'clock. On this vessel, the work is done by the Chinese crew and a permit has been obtained from the customs officials to work the Chinese on the dock if necessary.

HOUSEKEEPING ART DEAD?

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, March 31.—President Schneider, of the Board of Education, is rapidly coming to the conclusion that the art of housekeeping is dead in America. The cause of his belief is the difficulty he is experiencing in filing the $3000 position recently created by the board. The trouble seems to lie in the fact that the incumbent must teach both cooking and sewing. "I have been told," says Mr. Schneider, "with applications from every part of the country. We can't find any one that has all the qualifications we need. We have found some who can cook, but they can't teach sewing, and the sewing teachers can't supervise the cooking class. As a last resort two women have been appointed as a committee to make another tour of the city to find cities to redeem their sex's reputation."

DOFF GLOVES TO FIGHT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, March 31.—Have the members of the North End Wool Club agreed to do mitre of wool and lace as a protest against the tariff on gloves, or has somebody mistaken the expressed sentiment of the latest meeting? This is the question now agitating the ranks of the organization.

Mrs. L. Bracken Bishop made the suggestion. "How many women in this city," she asked, "will agree to stop wearing gloves all the winter is soiled?" Oris-scented white gloves were cast hurriedly aside and scores of gloveless hands were raised. No one dissented. "This question of a tariff on gloves," said Mrs. Bishop, "is going to do more than anything else to interest women in the cause of suffrage. Because it is making them realize how easy it is for men to legislate against their best interests, and how helpless they are in the matter." Now a question arises as to whether the club action is to be considered binding. "The women all held up their hands when Mrs. Bishop asked them," said Mrs. C. Portman, president, "but that was an informal acquiescence. No resolution was adopted."

Terry and his manager, Stephen Roffa, who was with him, made complaint against Miss Rutherford and a warrant is now out for her arrest for assault.

Miss Rutherford, who is but 18 years old, is the daughter of Gustave Rutherford, head of the telephone company in town. She is a lovely young woman and an accomplished pianist.

"Yes, I did," she said, "I gave him a good one and I'll do it again, too. They can take me to court if they want to; I don't care. No atom on the street will call me scab!"

WARD OF VIGILANCE

SAN FRANCISCO
RID OF PLAGUE.

at Fairmont in Celebration of Clean-up.

Gold Watch Is Presented to Surgeon Blue.Fight on Rats Still Goes on as Precaution.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—San Francisco celebrated officially the close of its campaign against bubonic plague tonight by giving a public dinner to Dr. Rupert Blue of the United States Marine Hospital Service and his corps of executive officers. Four hundred citizens gathered in the big ballroom of the Fairmont Hotel as an expression of their appreciation of the work done by Dr. Blue and his assistants.

The room was appropriately decorated in red, white and blue bunting mingled with a profusion of California flowers.

Among those present were Gov. Gillett, Mayor Taylor of San Francisco; Dr. Martin Regensberger, president of the State Board of Health; Dr. Philip Mills Jones, Secretary of the California State Medical Society; Dr. N. E. Jones, president of the State Board of Health; Dr. Assistant Surgeon W. C. Huddy, of the Angel Island Quarantine Station; Surgeon H. W. Austin, of the San Francisco Marine Hospital; and the members of the City Board of Health.

Impromptu speeches were made by Dr. Blue, Homer S. King, Chairman of the Citizens' Health Committee, who presided; Charles S. Wheeler, who acted as toastmaster; Gov. Gillett, Mayor Taylor, Dr. Regensberger, Dr. T. W. Huntington, of the San Francisco Board of Health; Dr. Philip Mills Jones and Walter MacArthur, a prominent labor leader.

GOLD WATCH PRESENTED.

At the close of the dinner, Mayor Taylor, on behalf of the citizens of San Francisco, presented Dr. Blue with a handsome gold watch, bearing the inscription:

"To Rupert Blue, Past Assistant Surgeon, U.S.P.H. and M.H.S., for the citizens of San Francisco, in grateful recognition of his services to the city while in command of the sanitation campaign of 1908."

Dr. Blue was much affected by the tribute and spoke a few words of thanks. He said that he felt himself as adopted son of San Francisco, and praised the work of the Citizens' Health Committee and the State and city boards of health. He also paid a high tribute to his own and the other officers who aided in the campaign. He said San Francisco was now clean and that his example in fearlessly attacking plagues should be followed by other cities in which there is similar danger.

Dr. Blue's staff of district commanders headed by Past Assistant Surgeon W. C. Huddy, Dr. Blue's executive officer, were presented gold medals in commemoration of their work.

Each medal bore the seal of the marine hospital service and the name of the recipient.

PLAGUE HISTORY.

First case of plague was reported in 1907, but no more cases were reported until August. Then cases occurred in rapid succession and San Francisco was threatened with a plague epidemic. Dr. Blue, who came here and took charge of an active campaign against the dreaded disease, the State and local boards cooperated heartily with Dr. Blue, and his corps of Federal assistants. A large sum of money was subscribed and San Francisco was given a cleaning up that few cities have experienced.

No energetic was the fight that although the last case was reported as long ago as January 30, 1908, the work of sanitation and extermination of rats has not yet ceased.

At each guest's place tonight was a volume of over 300 pages giving the history of the plague in San Francisco and the methods used in its extermination. Copies of this book will be circulated throughout the country as a guide to communities that may desire or find it necessary to engage in the work of complete sanitation.

FIGHT AGAINST FLEA.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) WASHINGTON, March 31.—The story of the long and hard fought campaign to rid San Francisco of its recent epidemic of bubonic plague, is told in an interesting report made public by the Marine Hospital Service today.

The disease was spread by a certain breed of flea that infected the rat, which, in turn, carried the plague broadcast.

Approximately one million rats were slain in the effort to wipe out the plague. Nearly 100,000 rats were examined, and of this number more than 200 carried fleas infected with the disease.

The campaign was directed toward the killing of rats, disinfecting premises and ships where the plague-infected rats had been found, and preventing the breeding and spread of the pests.

There were 2794 steamships disinfected, requiring the use of 420,000 pounds of sulphur and 4242 gallons of alcohol; 539 houses disinfected; 1690 inspections of the dead to determine whether they had died of the plague. Up to June 30, 1908, there had been 130 cases of plague and seventy-seven deaths.

The campaign was directed by the Marine Hospital Service, with the aid of the local authorities in San Francisco.

MARYSVILLE CASE REVERSED.

NEW TRIAL ORDERED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—Judgment of the lower court in favor of the city of Marysville against the City Street Improvement Company, which awarded the city $27,977, the amount paid on a sewer constructed by the company in Marysville, was reversed by the Supreme Court today and the case remanded for a new trial.

The corporation entered into a contract with the city to build a sewer for $27,977, and when $7,977 had been paid, the city refused to pay the other $20,000 due, on the ground that the company had not confronted with the terms of the contract.

The corporation brought suit for the balance, but judgment was found against it and the city was awarded the sum it had paid for the work.

BIG DEAL IN MINES.

NEAR CRESCENT MILLS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

QUINCY, March 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Several Nevada mining men of prominence are promoting a large deal in this county for mining properties below Crescent Mills, and it is expected will work them by means of a tunnel six miles long, running toward Greenville. It will be in a rich mineralized district the entire distance and will develop some of the richest properties in this part of the State around Indian Valley. The deal is one involving large capital, but the identity of the backers is not made known. Plans for opening ledges and draining mines through the proposed tunnel are pronounced feasible by expert mining men, but will be expensive.

MARYSVILLE CASE REVERSED.

NEW TRIAL ORDERED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—Judgment of the lower court in favor of the city of Marysville against the City Street Improvement Company, which awarded the city $27,977, the amount paid on a sewer constructed by the company in Marysville, was reversed by the Supreme Court today and the case remanded for a new trial.

The corporation entered into a contract with the city to build a sewer for $27,977, and when $7,977 had been paid, the city refused to pay the other $20,000 due, on the ground that the company had not confronted with the terms of the contract.

The corporation brought suit for the balance, but judgment was found against it and the city was awarded the sum it had paid for the work.

BIG DEAL IN MINES.

NEAR CRESCENT MILLS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

QUINCY, March 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Several Nevada mining men of prominence are promoting a large deal in this county for mining properties below Crescent Mills, and it is expected will work them by means of a tunnel six miles long, running toward Greenville. It will be in a rich mineralized district the entire distance and will develop some of the richest properties in this part of the State around Indian Valley. The deal is one involving large capital, but the identity of the backers is not made known. Plans for opening ledges and draining mines through the proposed tunnel are pronounced feasible by expert mining men, but will be expensive.

As he has been instrumental in running down many Italian criminals, it is believed the mafia may actually have marked him for a victim of its revenge. Rocca and his brother officers are inclined to view the card as a joke, but an effort to trace it will be made.

The card bore the inscription "Beware of the black hand and below was a large black hand rudely drawn."

SEEK AID OF PRESIDENT.

Leaders in House Worried by Tactics of "Insurgents."

Want Executive to Bring Recalcitrants Into Line.

Reported They Are Not Living Up to Agreement.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The situation with which the leaders of the House find themselves confronted in dealing with the Payne tariff bill, continues to give the greatest concern at the White House.

It was said today that President Taft had been directly appealed to by Speaker Cannon and leaders Payne and Doherty of the House. The tactics of the "insurgents" are worrying the leaders more than they are willing to admit, and it is to bring these recalcitrants into line that the President aid has been sought.

It has been reported to Mr. Taft, according to current report, that the insurgents are not living up to the letter of the verbal agreement they made with him at the time of the fight against the House rules. At that time the insurgents are said to have pledged themselves not to oppose the tariff bill if the President would agree to keep his hands off the fight.

To remedy the objections to the extended drawback provisions of the bill, Republican representatives from the wheat-growing States of the West, have submitted to the Ways and Means Committee an amendment in the nature of an additional provision to the drawback section.

Their principal contention is that the Payne provision would result in the manufacture of flour for export at the cities along the Atlantic seaboard instead of at western mills, as is the custom now. In order that the western manufacturers may retain the export trade, it is proposed that any article manufactured of grain raised in the United States in order to obtain the drawback when exported in lieu of imported grain, must be manufactured in the same mill or factory as the article manufactured from the imported grain.

The amendment also requires the exportation shall be made within the fiscal year in which the importation of the grain used, or checked against, is made.

A further provision would make all bran, shorts and other by-products of imported wheat, manufactured in a bonded warehouse, and withdrawn from domestic consumption, subject to a duty of 25 per cent, ad valorem, based upon the market price at the place of manufacture.

COMPROMISE AGREED TO. EXPECT VOTE ON TENTH.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) WASHINGTON, March 31.—A compromise is to be agreed to by the various factions on the Republican side of the House regarding the consideration of the Payne tariff bill, and it is confidently predicted that the measure will be voted on Saturday, April 10.

There was a noticeable disposition on the part of the "standpatters" today to accede to the wishes of those who have opposed the "insurgent" rule which would prevent a vote on certain important schedules.

The Ways and Means Committee has agreed to submit amendments that will keep ten on the free list, strike out the countervailing duty on coffee, and make the rate on barley 25 cents a bushel.

Up to this time the "standpatters" have agreed to permit the discussion of amendment of the paragraphs on hides and lumber. It probably will be necessary, however, for them to grant the same permission in regard to the reciprocity clause on bituminous coal and the paragraph which places iron ore on the free list.

It is said the Ways and Means Committee may report an amendment providing a tax on all dividends from stocks and bonds.

James J. Hill called on Speaker Cannon and informally discussed the tariff with him and members of the committee. Mr. Hill is understood to be in favor of repealing the duty on lumber, but would not so express himself for publication.

FAVORS TARIFF BUREAU. PRESIDENT TALKS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) WASHINGTON, March 31.—President Taft today declared himself in favor of a tariff bureau to be created at this session of Congress. He believed that such a bureau would be of great assistance in the application of the maximum and minimum principles of the Payne bill. The President's announcement was made to the Executive Committee of the committee of 100, created by the national tariff convention recently held in Indianapolis. This committee, headed by H. E. Miles, chairman, called at the White House today to lay before the President the tariff views of the convention and to recommend a permanent tariff committee. They will use their influence as far as possible to secure legislation on the subject at this session.

OIL SCHEDULES CONSIDERED. FORTY PER CENT DUTY TROED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) WASHINGTON, March 31.—The oil schedules were considered at the forenoon session of the Senate Committee on Finance today. Lewis Emory of Bradford, Pa., appeared before the committee and advocated a 40 per cent, ad valorem duty on crude petroleum and the removal of the countervailing duty. He declared the former was necessary for the protection of independent producers and that under the countervailing duty as contained in the Payne bill was removed there was danger that the oil might remove its duty on oil and pour into the United States all of its surplus.

MORE SUFFRAGETTES Jailed.

LONDON, March 31.—The proceedings in the Bow-street Police Court this morning, in connection with the raid on the House of Commons yesterday of women suffragettes, followed the customary lines. All the eleven women arrested elected to go to Holloway jail for periods of one to three months rather than to find sureties for their good behavior.

The militant women suffragettes made another attempt this morning to gain access to the buildings of Parliament, but they were easily followed by the police. They are getting tired of these frequent exhibitions and the women whom the police drove back again and again received scant sympathy. Eight or ten of the most persistent of them were arrested.

DEBATE WHAT IS WHISKY.

HEARING NEXT WEDNESDAY ON "STRAIGHT BOOZE."

Pure Food Law Rules Out Liquor Rectified by Higher Process and Bars Much of Scotch Product. Makers Want to Get Rid of Brand "Imitation Whisky."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, March 31.—President Taft was the storm center today of a debate on the subject of "What is whisky?" The discussion before the Chief Executive, which was preliminary to an extended hearing to be granted by him next Wednesday, hinged upon the technical question of at what point in the process of high or rectification old-fashioned straight becomes "imitation" whisky under the rules of the pure food law as laid down by the Department of Agriculture in accordance with a decision of former Atty.-Gen. Bonaparte.

Present at the conference of distillers and government officials at the White House were Atty.-Gen. Wickersham, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Dr. Wiley, Dr. Dunlap and Solicitor McCabe of the Agricultural Department; Joseph H. Choate of New York, representing Canadian whisky interests, and representatives of other whisky interests.

The distillers who take fuel oil out of their whisky by higher methods of rectification or re-distillation and color it in other ways than the use of charred oak barrels, and whose product is now labeled "imitation whisky" are desirous of securing a new ruling. They are opposed in this by the so-called straight whisky interests.

It is said that under the system now employed in the Department of Agriculture, only such whisky from which fuel oil has not been mechanically removed is regarded as "straight whisky." Under the department ruling it is declared that most Scotch whisky and many of the higher grades of other whisky now on the market comes under the obnoxious labeling of "imitation" whisky, or compound whisky.

following the barbecue was not especially regretted.

The Los Angeles visitors particularly, were amazed at the enormous volume of water plunging through the gates, to break below into frothing, chocolate-colored cascades.

The Los Angeles visitors, on the hundred and eleventh excursion of the Chamber of Commerce arrived early in the morning, 304 strong in a twelve-car train. They had spent Tuesday at the Imperial Valley where entertainment had been offered by the citizens of Calexico, El Centro, Imperial, Holtville and Brawley.

There had been nothing formal save a reception tendered the party by the Woman's Club of Imperial. Here short trips were made into the agricultural district.

ADDS TO LOS ANGELES.

According to President Booth, the party has seen much more than ever was expected and the most interesting feature is that every dollar of wealth developed here becomes contributory to Los Angeles. Every acre developed along the Colorado in Arizona or California simply adds that much more area to the back country of Los Angeles. A million acres will be cultivated some day along the Colorado from Needles to below Yuma, with fully a hundred million dollars' annual production.

It was announced that the next excursion would probably be to Phoenix to look over the better developed agricultural district around that city, returning by way of the Grand Cañon.

DOG TELLS OF ACCIDENT.

BURNS, March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Her attention attracted by the peculiar actions of the family dog yesterday, Mrs. Ralph Henderson, who resides four miles east of Burns, followed the canine to a neighboring creek and there found her 2-year-old son dead by drowning.

When the mother, who had been busy with her house work, discovered the absence of the child she became alarmed and at the same time noticed that the pet dog was whining and trotting back and forth in the direction of the creek. Following it she was led to where her boy had fallen into a deep pool and perished.

SISTER'S TRICK But it all Came Out Right

How a sister played a trick that brought rosy health to a coffee fiend is an interesting tale:

"I was a coffee fiend—a trembling, nervous, physical wreck, yet clinging to the poison that stole away my strength. I mocked at Postum and would have none of it.

"One day my sister substituted a cup of piping hot Postum for my morning cup of coffee but did not tell me what it was. I noticed the richness of it and remarked that the coffee tasted fine but my sister did not tell me I was drinking Postum for fear I might not take any more.

"She kept the secret and kept giving me Postum instead of coffee until I grew stronger, more fearless, got a better color in my hollow cheeks and a clearness to my eyes, then she told me of the health-giving, nerve-strengthening life-saver she had given me in place of my morning coffee. From that time I became a disciple of Postum and no words can do justice in telling the good this cereal drink did me. I will not try to tell it, for only after having used it can one be convinced of its merits."

Ten days' trial shows Postum's power to rebuild what coffee has destroyed. "There's a Reason."

roads. Referring to the announcement of the railroad, following their confer-

is the case a bill will be introduced in Missouri's Legislature,

April 11, which will force the railroads to furnish the people of the state such information as to receipts

from passenger fares, baggage, freight

and other sources as they have been able to secure heretofore. The bill,

said, will authorize circuit judges

to especially charge grand juries

with the duty of ascertaining the facts in this manner, securing evidence

Major claims the reports of the [Exclusive Dispatch.]

Scaling the cupola and "shinning"

up to the very top of the flag pole on Christian College, Miss

Georgia Dulaney of Moberly,

Mo., today nailed the colors of the senior class to the staff,

and no one but a steeple jack

is likely to reach the flag.

For hours after the flag was observed the picked climbers

of the college tried in vain to reach it. The juniors made a special effort to substitute their colors, but the mark set by Miss Dulaney was beyond the reach of all. Many girls succeeded in getting half way up the staff, but no one could endure long enough to touch the bunting, and all slid back in-nomitously to the cupola roof.

The frantic cries of classmates to "Hold on, oh, do hold on, dear," spurred many juniors

to renewed efforts, lightweight

being in demand, but all failed.

Despairing of reaching the flag,

members of the junior class

made up a purse of $5 for any one who would get the senior colors down. Scores tried for this prize, but no one got it.

The oldest members of the faculty and college employees

ment has never been equalled.

WISE TALKS

By The "Office Boy"

The Old Man says, "Look out for the boy who has to slunge into work direct from the common school, and who begins by sweeping out the office or store. There are hundreds of men who are called successful who have no right to be called so. It is true they are built up great business institutions. Their names attached to checks are good for millions of dollars. They have fine homes, automobiles, country places, yachts and are able to give their wives and families every luxury. But that isn't success. They die years before they should. They become dyspeptic. They don't know how to laugh. They take a scant half hour for their lunch. They have never taken a month's vacation since they started in business. What's the use? The Old Man is the other way. Outside of business he is a great big full of fun, blessed with a happy disposition and a good digestion. I think he gets more real fun out of life than any man in town. He makes it a point to take a vacation of at least two months every year. Have you ever tried to know of our stores? Do you know anything about our ways of doing business? Do you ever say to yourself, 'I'd like to find a store to trade in where I could feel and know that I would always get a square deal.' Well, sir, the Silverwood Stores are the stores you are looking for. We carry only reliable merchandise. Price it right and do straight legitimate business. We have no sales, no discounts and no favorite customers. Our immense output enables us to own our goods right and our immense output coupled together with our conscience enables us to sell our goods lower than others can afford to sell the same qualities. We sell everything men wear except shoes. Can't we have your patronage? Either store."

ARREST WAITS TROUT FISHERS.

Pritchard Gives Warning of Prosecutions.

Joke Will Be on Anglers If They Fish Today.

Misunderstanding About the Tidewater Streams.

Fishermen going out to the mountain streams today for trout will be looking for trouble, according to a statement made by Deputy Fish and Game Commissioner H. L. Pritchard yesterday, and the violator of the law and tackle who thinks it fun to come in this evening with a fine string of trout of any kind will find that he has played an expensive April fool joke on himself.

"It seems that there has been a good deal of misunderstanding about the law which allows the fishing of steelhead trout during April," said Mr. Pritchard yesterday. "The fact of the matter is that the law allows the fishing of steelhead trout in April only in tidewater. This law was calculated mainly for the benefit of Northern California, where there are large streams."

"In Southern California, steelhead trout will only be found in the mouth of the Ventura River at Ventura, from the beach to the Southern Pacific Railroad bridge, a distance of about 200 or 250 yards, and in the mouth of the Santa Ynez River, at Santa Ynez. The steelhead trout may legally be taken in April. But these are the only two places of which I know in which trout fishing is legal in April. The general trout season does not open until May 1."

PRITCHARD EXPLAINS.

"Some of the papers have been printing stories about coast streams. There is not a stream in the country that does not run to the coast and empty into the ocean. This reference to coast streams may be misleading."

"Some of the sporting goods houses have been telling the fishermen that they could fish for trout tomorrow, and some have been telling them not to go at all. Altogether, the fishermen are at sea as to what they may and may not do with steelhead trout."

"During the summer months, steelhead trout may be found in the various mountain streams, sometimes as far as fifty or sixty miles inland, and during those months they may be lawfully taken. But in April all trout, including the steelhead, as well as the rainbow, the brook, Loch Leven and other trout, must be let alone, except where the steelhead trout may be found in tidewater, as I have already explained."

"This is covered by Senate Bill No. 70, introduced by Senator Black, January 29, last, amended February 12, and again February 15, passed by the Governor and now in full force and effect, according to instructions given me in a letter from Charles A. Vogelsang, the chief deputy of the State Fish and Game Commission. The law provides a penalty from $20 to $500, and imprisonment from ten to 150 days, either or both, at the discretion of the court."

"You might also say that I will not be in town tomorrow. There have been a number of people saying that they were going out fishing for trout tomorrow, and I am going to try to meet as many of them as I can. Offenders may depend upon it that they will be prosecuted, but, owing to the mistakes and statements that have been published about the opening of the season, I wish to give them warning. This is the last word, however."

Having used the term "inland waters," the game warden, when questioned, explained that it was that sort of stream which was not affected by the backing of the tide.

RETURNED ITALIANS ARE BEING WACHED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NAPLES, March 21.—The Naples authorities are taking extraordinary precautions to insure the safety of former President Roosevelt during his short visit to this city. They are keeping a close watch on the Italians who have returned from the United States, or who have relatives there, and also on foreigners of different nationalities.

MOMBASA GETTING READY.

MOMBASA (British East Africa) March 21.—The preparations for receiving Theodore Roosevelt here are nearing completion. Sir James Hayes Sadler, Governor, and commander-in-chief of the protectorate, who has been transferred suddenly to the Windward Isles is much disappointed that he will not be able to receive the former President. This duty will devolve upon Frederick John Jackson, Lieutenant-Governor of the protectorate. Mr. Jackson is a famous sportsman, and the author of a book on big game.

Package addressed to Mr. Roosevelt are arriving on every steamer from London. They come principally from British firms in the export business. A cablegram has been sent to Mr. Roosevelt at about 11 a. m. to be the guest of the citizens of Mombasa at a dinner on St. George's Day, April 23. R. J. Cunningham, the well-known hunter and field naturalist who is to manage the Roosevelt expedition, is completing his preparations with much secrecy. The government is constructing a new road to facilitate the landing of the Roosevelt party at Kilindi, the landing place for Mombasa.

"Since the advent of the rains lions have been terrifying the natives within four miles of Kilindi. An elephant made its way yesterday into the bazaar at Masingi and played havoc. The natives at Masingi have been assured that they need have no further fear, as Mr. Roosevelt is on his way to the protectorate to hunt. They are awaiting his arrival contentedly."

An American settler is talking seriously of importing possums for breeding purposes. He says he hopes to tempt President Taft to come here.

NORDHOFF ENTERTAINS TENNIS ENTHUSIASTS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

VENTURA, March 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The fourteenth annual tennis tournament at Nordhoff promises to be the best in the history of the Ventura Tennis Club. There will be an increased attendance and more crack players from the north end of the State than ever before.

Messrs. Carl Gardner, Maurice McLaughlin and Melville Long, with Miss Hazel Hotchkiss of San Francisco arrived at Nordhoff today and with Spaulding, the crack Yale man, put in a day of practice to get ready for the opening games tomorrow. The entire all told are 130, but there will be little trouble in pulling all the games off in the three days play as three courts have been added, making seven in all.

Of the Southern California players, Messrs. Bell, Bundy and others, will be on hand together with Mrs. Bruce Mrs. Farquhar, Miss Ryan, and other notables. The Sutton sisters will not be present and for the reason it is expected that the play among the women aspirants will be more keen than ever, since Miss May Sutton would

ROMANCE IS WRECKED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A slump in the demand for samples of the sculptor's art in Chicago has wrecked another international romance.

Otto Burchard Jahn, far famed as a chisel of stone, and his wife, formerly Miss Florentine Maria St. von Massow, whose romantic marriage here last December was the talk of Chicago society and German court circles, have agreed upon a separation.

Prof. Jahn will leave for Berlin within a fortnight. Mrs. Jahn will remain in Chicago.

The Berlin sculptor told friends recently that when he came to Chicago four months ago he had been led to believe there was an enormous demand here for works of art in marble. He said such representations were made to him by his wife while she was his pupil, prior to their marriage.

Miss von Massow studied sculpture in Berlin under the famous teacher twenty-five years ago and was a strong affection developed. The families of both objected to a match and efforts to separate the two succeeded. It was represented to Prof. Jahn that Miss von Massow had married in America. Shortly afterward he married. Last year he learned his former pupil had never married, that her affection had endured through the years. Early in December he came to Chicago with his 15-year-old son, Walter, and two weeks later the marriage took place at the Hyde Park Baptist Church.

ICELAND IS LOYAL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

COPENHAGEN, March 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The political leaders of Iceland, who arrived here recently to take up the negotiations respecting the future relations of their country with Denmark, called upon King Frederick today.

At the royal audience the Chief Justice of Iceland's highest court, Herr Jonsson, replied to the King's anxious inquiries as to the present situation by assuring him that 99 per cent of the people were opposed to separation, but that they rejected the proposal made by the commission because it did not give Iceland the right to settle all of its own affairs independently. This, said the Chief Justice, was Iceland's desire, and no other arrangement would be satisfactory.

After the audience Herr Jonsson said he did not expect any result from the present negotiations, but that in no case would Iceland sever its relations with Denmark.

GERMANY FAVORS TREATY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BERLIN, March 21.—The question of a treaty of arbitration between the United States and Germany came up in the Reichstag today, following the declaration of Richard Kichhoff, Radical Liberal, that he had read the Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador at Washington, had proposed the conclusion of a general obligatory arbitration convention.

Mrs. Sothen filed her suit in this city last July, and the papers were served on Sothen, who was then playing here. Neither was present during the hearing of the suit, and the evidence adduced is all in the form of depositions.

Mrs. Sothen's attorneys contend that the Nevada statutes were complied with in the serving of the first papers on Sothen, and that the depositions are all that is necessary.

SERBIA ENDS CRISIS BY NOTE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

VIENNA, March 21.—The Serbian Minister here, handed to Foreign Minister von Aehrenthal today the note from his government that marks the conclusion of the difficulty between Austria-Hungary and Serbia. It was officially declared here this afternoon that the crisis between Serbia and Austria-Hungary is thus declared at an end.

COOPER MAKES BIG HEADWAY.

Must Change Present Plans If Callers Increase.

Local Matron Among His Recent Converts.

Strongly Favors His Theory and Medicine.

L. T. Cooper continues to attract widespread attention with his theory that stomach trouble is the cause of most ill-health. The sale of his medicine is very large and is steadily increasing at the Owl drug store, 625 South Broadway, where he is meeting the public.

Among those who have become convinced that Cooper's preparation is all he claims is Mrs. Agnes Hulse of 1249 West Twenty-third street, Los Angeles, who said recently: "My life has been made miserable for the last four years by chronic indigestion. For days I have not been able to retain solid food of any sort, and when I could eat something I would be nauseated for hours and could only retain what I had eaten by an effort."

"I have been nervous and run down. I was weak and unstrung, and it was almost more than I could do to come downtown. After shopping for an hour or two I would feel so tired that I would have to go home and lie down for the rest of the day. I have consulted physicians constantly but have not been helped. A friend insisted that I try this Cooper medicine, but I refused to do so until she finally almost forced me to get it. I started taking it about a month ago. The first improvement I noticed was that I no longer was nauseated after eating. Then I began to feel stronger and sleep better. Finally my nervousness no longer troubled me and I did not jump at sudden noises. I now feel actually rejuvenated. I have gained weight, have a better color, no longer feel weak and depressed and enjoy my meals heartily. All my friends have been astonished by my return to health and can vouch for everything I have said."

In a recent interview Cooper said: "I am now meeting as many people as myself and assistants can conveniently talk to. More people are calling every day, and if this increase is kept up I shall have to make different arrangements by the middle of next week."

"Those who are in touch with the sale of my medicine are astonished by my success in Los Angeles. I am not in the least astonished, however, as I knew long before I came here that very few people can be sick the stomach is in order. It simply remained for me to prove that my medicine positively would regulate the stomach."

I have gained weight, have a better color, no longer feel weak and depressed and enjoy my meals heartily. All my friends have been astonished by my return to health and can vouch for everything I have said."

In a recent interview Cooper said: "I am now meeting as many people as myself and assistants can conveniently talk to. More people are calling every day, and if this increase is kept up I shall have to make different arrangements by the middle of next week."

"Those who are in touch with the sale of my medicine are astonished by my success in Los Angeles. I am not in the least astonished, however, as I knew long before I came here that very few people can be sick the stomach is in order. It simply remained for me to prove that my medicine positively would regulate the stomach."

COOPER MAKES BIG HEADWAY.

Must Change Present Plans If Callers Increase.

Local Matron Among His Recent Converts.

Strongly Favors His Theory and Medicine.

L. T. Cooper continues to attract widespread attention with his theory that stomach trouble is the cause of most ill-health. The sale of his medicine is very large and is steadily increasing at the Owl drug store, 625 South Broadway, where he is meeting the public.

Among those who have become convinced that Cooper's preparation is all he claims is Mrs. Agnes Hulse of 1249 West Twenty-third street, Los Angeles, who said recently: "My life has been made miserable for the last four years by chronic indigestion. For days I have not been able to retain solid food of any sort, and when I could eat something I would be nauseated for hours and could only retain what I had eaten by an effort."

"I have been nervous and run down. I was weak and unstrung, and it was almost more than I could do to come downtown. After shopping for an hour or two I would feel so tired that I would have to go home and lie down for the rest of the day. I have consulted physicians constantly but have not been helped. A friend insisted that I try this Cooper medicine, but I refused to do so until she finally almost forced me to get it. I started taking it about a month ago. The first improvement I noticed was that I no longer was nauseated after eating. Then I began to feel stronger and sleep better. Finally my nervousness no longer troubled me and I did not jump at sudden noises. I now feel actually rejuvenated. I have gained weight, have a better color, no longer feel weak and depressed and enjoy my meals heartily. All my friends have been astonished by my return to health and can vouch for everything I have said."

In a recent interview Cooper said: "I am now meeting as many people as myself and assistants can conveniently talk to. More people are calling every day, and if this increase is kept up I shall have to make different arrangements by the middle of next week."

SIXTH ROBBER ROBBED PALS.

Confessions of Prisoners in Bank Case Made.

Tell of Division of "Swag"
and Its Disposal.

One Mysterious "Butt-in" Is Still Missing.

Confessions by the five men arrested in connection with the robbery of the First National Bank at Monrovia, implicate a sixth man, whose arrest is hourly expected. The name of A. H. McAllister.

Charles S. Martin.

George Yohn.

Ernest W. Sundin.

Caught With the Goods.

Four of the five men arrested in connection with the robbery of the First National Bank
at Monrovia, California, were released.

This man is withheld, but the officers said that he took with him a large part of the $17,450 not yet accounted for out of the $29,700 stolen.

This man was located in San Francisco,
California, and whether he is still there is not known by the local officers.

Another person who may be connected with the crime, and for whom the officers are looking, is a woman friend of Martin. It is understood that she was indirectly responsible for the robbery while in a fit of desperation after a quarrel with her husband.

George Yohn is the true name of the member of the gang whose name was given out as "John." He is the iron worker who bought a cigar stand at Fifth street and Central avenue with a part of his share of the loot.

The reason for giving his name as "John,"
according to the officers, was that the officers, who are to shield his brother,
Carl F. Yohn, who is clerk to the superintendent of the electrical district of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company. The brother, Carl, has been closely questioned by the detectives and found to have absolutely no connection with the crime. He has a clean record and is above reproach. The father of the two young men is George F. Yohn of No. 1102 East Eighth street. He is a timid man and has a faultless reputation.

CONFESSIONS MADE.

Allen George Beatty, A. H. McAllister
and George Yohn, three of the men arrested, made complete confessions.
McAllister, who was merely an accomplice after the fact, forced into knowledge of the crime by his business partner, Sundin, was released, and will not be prosecuted. Charles S. Martin, the man who planned the crime, and Ernest W. Sundin, both of whom are in the County Jail, have made only partial confessions, and in many details
they have not told the truth according to the officers working on the case.

Now that the details of the crime
have become public, it is considered strange that all the men, with the exception of Beatty, the sixth man,
both of whom left town, were not arrested long ago, for they made no secret of their connection with the robbery.
The sixth man and Martin were the only clearest men in the job, the rest being "dubs," according to the expression used by Martin in describing them.

"They acted the part, too," said
Martin in his confession, "for they told several of their friends, thereby implicating
a lot of innocent people in the crime as accomplices after the fact."

Evidently it was from some of these people confided in my Sundin, Beatty and Yohn, that the local detectives received the first intimation of the guilty parties.

"Had Martin and the Sixth man carried out this robbery unaided, we never would have recovered any of the money," said one of the officers yesterday. As it was,
with the six men in on the job, and some of them talking, it is a wonder that some of the patrolmen on the beat down by Sixth and Broadway did not arrest a few of the gang.

According to Beatty's confession, the sixth man, now being hunted, was a "butt in," who had not been invited to join the gang, but learned of the proposed attempt (very likely through the talkativeness of some of the gang), and showed up on the job at Monrovia. This man did the "heavy work" as his share of the robbery.

"This man pried open the window of the bank for us," said Beatty, "and then he stood by ready to shoot if any one showed up. He was right on hand when it came to dividing the loot, and took that was supposed to be one-fourth of it."

ROBS HIS PALS.

"But each of the shares were only a little over $500, and we afterward
learned that the amount taken by us was $29,700, and as we did not divide that much, he must have stolen the rest from us on the sly."

This belief on the part of Beatty is shared by the rest of the gang, and is borne out by the investigation. All of the $1000 bills, except one, and all of the $500 bills but one, have been accounted for by the confessions, and as these men did not know of the existence of any more bills of this denomination, it is plain that the "butt
in" was not about robbing his pals in crime.

According to McAllister's confession,
a part of the loot changed hands on the fifth floor of the Security Savings Bank, as it was here he met Yohn
and delivered to him Martin's share of the money.

"I did not know of the robbery until
the day after it occurred," said McAllister. "When I came down to the store the next morning, Sundin was already there, and he gave me the money, and asked me to put it away
in a safe place and keep it for him.
I asked him where the money came from, and he said he would tell me later."

CARES FOR "SWAG."

"That afternoon he told me that they had touched up a bank, but did not say what bank, and I was a little afraid. I saw that I had been let in on a dangerous proposition, but I decided to keep quiet for my partner's sake. I brought the money down to the store again and we counted it. Sundin kept half, saying that it was his share, and told me to put the rest,
which was Martin's share, in a safe place."

"I took it to Long Beach and put it in a vault. Later I was told that Martin wanted some of the money
and that Yohn would take care of it until he received it. Then I brought the money back and gave it to Yohn in the Security building. That was all that I had to do with the affair,
except the spending of the $1000 bill
for fixtures and jewelry."

McAllister has a wife and child. His previous record has been clean and several of his relations are living in this city, none of whom were connected with the crime or had any knowledge of his connection with it, until his arrest.

Another portion of the loot, consisting of $250 in bills, was recovered yesterday at the County Jail. The man who called upon the County Jail and stated that he had part of the money and wanted to know what to do with it, was told to bring it in and tell how he received it.

RECOVER MORE CASH.

The man who withheld this man's name, but say that he is a store-keeper and that Sundin left about $500 with him on the pretense that he was afraid to carry it. Later he had drawn small amounts from time to time until there was only $250 left.

Of the $29,700 stolen the following amounts have been recovered: From Beatty, who received $2300 (approximately), $5000 in cash, jewelry and collateral;
from Yohn, who received Martin's $2300 or more, $4495; from Sundin,
who received an amount not yet determined, $1905, in cash, and fixtures in his store; from McAllister, who received a $1000 bill, diamond rings worth $500.

N. OSWALD'S NEAR COMEDY.

Officers Sent Scorching on Wild Goose Chases.

Tenderloin Boss Probably in Los Angeles Still.

Outgivings of Chum While Deep in His Cups.

An automobile dashed up in front of the District Attorney's office yesterday;
a couple of sleuths leaped in,
armed, if not to the teeth, at least to the neck.

It was an expedition starting to investigate
a rumor that Nick Oswald was in a certain house in the suburbs of town.

At nearly the same hour yesterday
two bold and desperate policemen
started down First street on a dead run, bucking on their weapons. They were investigating a rumor that Mr.
Oswald was being shaved at the Cosmopolitan barber shop on Third street.

Meanwhile, Mr. Oswald continues to be the most missing man on this hemisphere.

Both expeditions returned in chagrin,
cursing "phony tips."

It has been established almost to a certainty that Nick is in the city. More than a dozen men in the Tenderloin claim to have seen him here within the last two days. His reputed visits have been made always late at night.
His purpose in returning is to get reliable news of the workings of the strange.

Nick will trust neither newspapers
nor messages. There are just a few trusted agents in the Tenderloin upon whom he relies for the "dope," and he won't trust them to come to his hiding place. He sneaks in and slips away again before dawn.

Several times within the last two days the police have swooped down on unsuspecting private houses on information that Nick was there.

On one occasion he was reported to be in a house on South Main street occupied by one of his relatives. Detective lurked around the place half the night.

On another night officers rushed out to the residence of a man named Mc-Lean in the southwest part of town.
McLean is another relative of the Oswald family.

THE LATEST NIGHTMARE.

The latest night alarm came from the Oswald family residence on Macy street, where it was claimed that Oswald had been seen on Sunday night.
He may have been there Sunday night,
but he wasn't there when the officers called.

Meanwhile, by the turbulent floods
of Tia Juana waits a detective employed by E. T. Earl, the famous reformer. The detective is said to carry a card upon which the District Attorney has scribbled a promise of immunity if Nick will come back.

Last night a threat was given out to the evening papers, addressed to Nick and warning him that the immunity won't last forever.

It is now admitted, however, that in chasing Nick into Mexico, the detectives were led astray for some of Nick's numerous friends who wanted to see how fast an official automobile
could jump over the international line.
On his return from the wild goose
chase of yesterday afternoon, S. L.
Brown, the head of criminal investigation of the District Attorney's office,
conceded that the Mexican expedition was the result of a "wrong steer" on the part of Nick's friends.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

It is expected that George Alexander will be inaugurated as Mayor at noon today. He says no appointments will be made for several days.

Miss Blandy has refused to resign her position at the Library, and the directors are to take action on her case, probably tomorrow.

Judge James yesterday appointed Evan Lewis receiver of the Consolidated Bank of Los Angeles. The bond was fixed at $15,000.

Mrs. Gertrude Driggs, the alleged forger, whose bail was reduced from $10,000 to $5,000, was unable to furnish that sum. Her preliminary hearing will be held by Justice Ling tomorrow.

J. B. Bushnell, alleged embezzler, was committed to the County Jail, on six counts, in default of $20,000 bail.

The probate of the will of "Lucky" Baldwin was again postponed, pending negotiations in San Francisco for a possible settlement of the threatened contest.

AT THE CITY HALL.

MUM REGARDING SELECTIONS.

GUESSING CONTEST ON CITY HALL CHANGES.

Nothing to Be Done for Several Days, Says Alexander, and Politicians Admit They Cannot Get Line on Things—Third Executive in Three Weeks Today.

Los Angeles will have a new Mayor at noon today, if the programme of the Council is carried out. It expects to declare the election of George Alexander shortly after 11 o'clock this morning and the oath-taking ceremony will be administered to him at once. Mayor Stephens will turn over the office at once. Thus the city will have had three Mayors in three weeks, for Harper's resignation was accepted three weeks ago today, and Mayor Stephens was elected March 15.

Mayor Stephens was happy yesterday that his brief administration was almost over. To those who told him he would be returned at the December election he said:

"Under no circumstances. I will not have the office and I mean what I say."

Mayor-elect Alexander visited the office yesterday and spent some time answering letters and getting a line on his first duties. In the afternoon Frank G. Henderson, his private secretary, chatted with Private Secretary Tribbit. He, too, was making himself familiar with the office.

Incidental to the Mayor's taking of office a flood of resignations from the four principal commissions—Police, Fire, Parks and Health—are expected. There are one or two commissioners who say they will not resign but they are expected to follow the same course as their colleagues, which is recognized as the proper step in a change of administration. The fate of several subordinates, the Police Chief, the fire chief, the superintendent of parks and the health officer, are involved with the resignations of the commissioners though this is not understood to mean that all will resign. Those who are close to the recall threat say the effect will be to leave only one of the four slated for reduction and he will probably take his old place as captain. Fire Chief Lips, Park Superintendent Morley and Health Officer Power are regarded as efficient without political hostility.

As to who will be named to succeed them there is not a word of authority except that the Mayor-elect has told many that those who thought he intended to "rip things wide open" would be badly fooled. A number of the present members of the commissions will remain, it is felt sure, but Alexander will say nothing except that there will be no appointments for several days.

Intimations as to who will succeed any one are mere guesses but it is known that a number of prominent recallers have declined to accept appointments. If the Mayor-elect has chosen his official family he has kept it a pretty close secret for a number of days and who will be chosen.

Mayor-elect Alexander has a new majority today and it is known that he has received 12,384 votes, while Fred C. Wagoner, who was elected yesterday by Deputy City Clerk Wilde and shows that Alexander received 14,662 votes, 174, Wagoner, prohibition candidate, 82, and 123 were scattered between "Doc" Hewton and "Old White's" bull.

The election officers who were cited to appear and correct their returns have been coming to the Clerk's office and the signatures are all expected to be in place by this morning at 11 o'clock when the Council will reconvene to complete the canvass.

NEW CRISIS?

WILL MISS BLANDY REIGN?

A meeting of the library directors, arranged for tomorrow afternoon may or may not produce a new crisis in library affairs.

And if there is a new crisis it will be because Miss Julia W. Blandy, brought to the library from the East by Librarian Lummis, refuses to tender her resignation. Librarian Lummis, carrying out the order of the board, has requested the resignation but Miss Blandy has declined to tender it.

Last week, it might be well to say that Miss C. J. K. Jones, D.D., director of Study of Research, is still in his "funny little room" and will fight his removal, resignation, demotion or official extermination. He has not been asked to resign but holds by common consent the "next" card, after Miss Blandy.

Miss Blandy is the principal of the department of branches. Because she thought other employees were making faces at her and "maliciously destroying" her work she made charges against four librarians, and the trial court ruled the library, if not the whole world, which, by the way, is just a little more than the library. Her claims all fall to the ground, and the testimony as to her own motives and conduct was such that the Library Board felt that her usefulness in the city's service had ended. This is why it asked her resignation.

The principal point in the testimony that the library board thinks justifies her dismissal is her own statement that she would not have filed any charges if her demand for an increase in salary had been granted. This, some think, is all nonsense. The situation, though those who say the job of Atlas holding the world on his back will be easy in comparison to theirs if Miss Blandy and Rev. Dr. Jones do not resign. Some directors seem to think their remaining will only result in further demoralization and scandal. So that drastic action at Friday's meeting may be expected, though it is not sure.

Miss Blandy and Rev. Dr. Jones take the position that they are faithfully performing their duties and ought to be let alone. Miss Blandy has the commendation of the Civil Service Commission for airing the library dispute. She has, through her attorney, threatened that if she was not let alone she would "go higher up and let refusal to resign indicate that this was no idle threat."

Rev. Dr. Jones, having no gold fish to feed, is having a peaceful time, since he quit making the breaches of discipline in the library.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

CARLSON'S BANK GETS RECEIVER.

JUDGE JAMES ENDS FINANCIAL FARCE AT LAST.

No Word from Former Promoter in North and Evan Lewis is Named to Take Charge of Consolidated Bank of Los Angeles Under Bond of Fifteen Thousand Dollars.

Judge James last evening finally settled the receivership of the Consolidated Bank of Los Angeles, by appointing Evan Lewis receiver of the institution, and that official will assume his duties this morning, after filing a bond to the satisfaction of the court in the sum of $15,000.

Judge James waited all day to hear something definite from W. H. Carlson, who had given out the word to his friends that he would be able to arrange for the United Surety Company of Maryland to give a bond to the court and Night Bank of this city, and that the latter would furnish the money under that bond to pay off all of the claims against the bank. For the alleged purpose Carlson went to San Francisco.

But no word came from Carlson except he had met with an unfortunate accident on Ocean, where the Southern Pacific train had run into a landslide, and a second message came from him further postponing the matter of naming a receiver until he could return from the north.

There was nothing left for the court to do under the circumstances, except to name a receiver, and this was done, after Mr. Lewis had had an interview with Judge James in his chambers. The new receiver has been in charge of the bank's books and furniture since the institution was closed by the Bank Commissioners, and is thoroughly familiar with the situation.

Under the stipulation signed by Carlson some weeks since, there is no recourse from the action of the court into the hands of the receiver. GETS WIFE EASILY.

BUT SHE'S HARD TO LOSE.

The case of Samuel B. Kuhn, a staid member of the Dunkard Church at Glendora, against his wife, Bertha Kuhn, for annulment of their marriage, was finished before Judge Hutton yesterday, and was adjourned to the matter under advisement.

A number of the fellow members of the Dunkard community appeared in behalf of Kuhn, to establish the contention that he was of falling mind when he contracted the marriage. On October, 1907, and R. Kuhn, one of his sons, offered strong testimony along that line. The boy declared that one day when he had called at the home to sell his father a box of soap, that the old gentleman followed her out and tried to get her to marry him.

Adolph Lubec, the pawnbroker on East First street, where it was stated that the marriage was arranged, but he claimed to know nothing about the matter. His clerk, Samuel I. Solomon, whose name had been incorporated in the pleading, said that he had been introduced to the old gentleman by the name of Kuhn, and that he had been told by a fortune-teller that he had bought a ring he would and was married to an who afterward became Kuhn's wife, was a frequent caller at the place, and said she wanted to get married, but that she was married to a man named Kuhn.

Solomon told the story of selling Kuhn the ring, saying that the old gentleman said he had been told by a fortune-teller that he had bought a ring he would and was married to an who afterward became Kuhn's wife, was a frequent caller at the place, and said she wanted to get married, but that she was married to a man named Kuhn.

When they returned Kuhn was feeling so good over his luck, that he gave Solomon a $10 gold piece, telling him to "make good money for me." He denied that he had engineered the wedding in any way, and thought the whole matter was more of a joke than anything else. He claimed that he did not then nor does he now know the maiden name of Kuhn's wife, that she used to eat at a restaurant near the store, and he got acquainted with her in that way.

It was also in evidence that the deed for the eighty acres of Minnesota land deeded by Kuhn to the woman, was prepared by Attorney A. M. Norton, who gave the instrument to Kuhn. This was afterward taken from him by the woman according to the testimony, who now says she does not know what became of it.

FACES SIX CHARGES.

BUSHNELL HELD FOR TRIAL.

The preliminary examination of J. F. Bushnell, charged with embezzling funds of the E. K. Wood Lumber Company of this city, resulted in the accused being bound over to answer to the Superior Court on six charges, with bail aggregating $30,000. Bushnell was unable to furnish bond and was returned to jail.

W. D. Wetmore, assistant manager and cashier of the company, identified a duplicate slip given to him by Wood, showing that five checks received from the city had been deposited on January 16. The prosecution charged that Bushnell collected six vouchers for various amounts due the company, from the city, and deposited all but one in the Merchants' National Bank on that date.

J. A. Cowan, a clerk in the office of the auditor, identified six checks drawn by Bushnell on the day in question. Among them was voucher No. 864, for $2573.10, and City Treasurer H. H. and W. H. Houlday, president of the Merchants'

National Bank, testified to handling the vouchers. The six vouchers, which are claimed to have been embezzled, are as follows: May 18, 1908, $747.40; November 13, 1908, $100.00; November 22, 1908, $267.18; December 22, 1908, $135.13; January 16, 1909, $100.00. Motion was made by the attorneys for the defense to dismiss the case, but this was overruled by Justice Summerfield.

BALDWIN WILL.

POSTPONEMENT AGREED TO.

For the second time the hearing on the probate of the will of the late E. J. ("Lucky") Baldwin has been postponed in Judge Rives' court. The action was mutually agreed upon, and it is understood the reason for the delay is to allow time for the settlement out of court of the proposed content of the instrument. Upon what terms Mrs. Baldwin is to allow the probate of the will is not known, but negotiations have been in progress in San Francisco for some time, and it is believed the matter will be fixed up within a few days, and all costly and tedious litigation in Judge Rives' court.

Judge Rives allowed H. A. Unruh, the special executor, to pay $5000 monthly interest to the Hilberman Loan Association of San Francisco on the $1,350,000 blanket mortgage, which it holds on the Baldwin estate. He was authorized to rent out a number of the race horses on the ranch for use on the various tracks of the country.

MUST KEEP HER.

HIS FOURTH DIVORCE DENIED.

This is the chronology of the marital experiences of J. W. Fielding, head of the School of Railways and Telegraphs, in this city, as shown by the testimony in Judge Hutton's court yesterday.

In 1879 he married Lovina C. Belding, at Des Moines. They lived together about twenty-seven years, and two children were born, both now married.

In 1899 they were again married, and lived together three or four months. When he brought an action for divorce against his wife, on the ground of gross neglect of duty, and secured the decree in his favor, and the couple lived apart about one year.

LOOKING FOR ROCK.

SUPERVISORS INSPECT SUPPLY.

The Board of Supervisors and Highway Commission made a trip to San Dimas yesterday, with a view to inspecting a rock supply at that point, to be possibly used in the construction of the roads of Los Angeles county. It is believed that if a good deposit of rock can be found the question of the reduced cost of making the roads will be solved. It is the intention of the board to send a commission to visit other places where a deposit of good stone can be had.

It is understood that the internes of the County Hospital, who were dismissed Tuesday by order of the supervisors, will appear in their own defense before the board Monday. It is charged that they have been considered in the conduct of their duties, in the medical work ever since the appointment of Dr. Finley, as assistant superintendent. In January, 1908, there has been an apparent inability of Dr. Finley and the internes to see things from the same viewpoint, and the internes have been considered in the conduct of their duties, in the medical work ever since the appointment of Dr. Finley, as assistant superintendent.

SMOOTH'S THEIR PATH.

MATRIMONIAL TROUBLES END.

Judge James yesterday issued a writ of habeas corpus returnable before Judge Wilbur, but the matter was heard. Instead, the parties at interest, metaphorically kissed and made up, and the incident was closed. A little baby, scarcely 2 years old, laughed just as he understood what it was all about.

About three years ago, Nellie Leach, alias Mundell, as the result of action taken by the Los Angeles Humane Society, was committed to the Home of the Friendless, and a little while later she was released on an order of court, but no sooner was she free than she married David C. Lewis, a well-known "Bud" Lewis, whose wife had been murdered at Downey, two years before.

In the course of time, a baby was born, Thelma Adalina Lewis, and it was this child that was the bone of contention yesterday. The wedded life of the pair did not run smoothly. Mrs. Lewis brought an action for divorce last November. Pending a hearing of the case the mother was given custody of the child, pending the trial. The suit was afterward withdrawn.

The Lewises began to live together again, and more trouble appearing, it was charged by the father that the father had violated the order of the court, and insisted upon keeping the custody of the child. Then a writ of habeas corpus was issued, and the case came before Judge Wilbur. The court took the pair into his chambers, and in a few moments they emerged all smiles and satisfied. There will be no more riots in the Lewis family for a few days at least.

ATTORNEYS LOSE.

MAY NOT GET FEE.

A question of interest to attorneys was submitted in an equity case in Judge Conroy's court yesterday under the style of Voorhees et al. against Richardson et al. It was submitted to a jury and an advisory verdict rendered in favor of the plaintiff on all of the thirteen special charges of the court. The matter will be argued tomorrow.

On August 27, 1907, Sherman T. Voorhees was arrested on the charge of rape. On August 30 he made a verbal agreement with W. H. Martin, attorney-at-law of this city, for defense. Later on a note for $500 was executed by his wife, Catherine A. Voorhees, and Sherman T. Voorhees, to the attorneys for such services, and the payment of the note was secured by a mortgage on lots Nos. 1 and 2, in Peck's subdivision of San Pedro. This mortgage on November 18, 1907, was transferred to the Carter Investment Company.

It was claimed by the Voorhees that Richardson and Martin, without cause, had filed a petition in the Superior Court asking leave to mortgage their premises to borrow $14,345, due on a note made October 20, 1905, in favor of the Southern California Savings Bank, since transferred and indorsed to the Security Savings Bank. The property sought to be mortgaged is lots 42 and 43, of the Goldworthy tract. The original loan was for $14,500, but of that sum $155 has been paid.

gences had not been exercised in the management of the case; claimed that the attorneys had looked after the interests of the defendant, who had secured other attorneys when the line of defense was changed. Attorney Richardson made a fearful appeal to the jury, asking them to protect his client, having no good angel appearing, and she was compelled to return to jail. Her preliminary hearing is set in Justice Ling's court, Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

The writ of habeas corpus sued out in her behalf was for the purpose of securing the return of the defendant, who was not in custody, and did not seem at all heart broken by reason of the night she had spent behind the bars.

Deputy District Attorney, who delivered the necessary twenty-four hours' notice required under the law in such cases. He declared the instrument, for the purpose of the law, was not a forgery; that it was not worth the money alleged by the defendant to be in the hands of the defendant, if real, was worth from $50,000 to $75,000. The option on the 127 acres of land to run the water, and an acre was a valuable possession, for the land, in his opinion, was worth $1000 an acre.

Attorney Charles M. Ackerman, on behalf of Mrs. Driggs, asked that the amount of the bond be reduced; that was excessive in such a case, he thought. Mrs. Driggs was an old woman and she had the care of two grandchildren that she must look after. He thought her confinement under the circumstances was a hardship, and he asked that the bond be reduced to $5000.

Attorney Ackerman says he was introduced to Charnock by Mrs. Driggs in the latter part of February, and that he also prepared a lease and option for the woman, but whether it is the instrument in question he does not know. He was not in the room when the document was signed, and it was signed at all by the deceased. He declares that Mrs. Driggs and Charnock came out of the room together, when the woman said to him: "This is the document."

"Is this your signature?" asked the attorney of Charnock, and he replied that it was Ackerman's. He chagrined the turn affairs have taken, and desires a suspension of judgment as far as he is concerned, until the case is heard.

some silver and one to two

to the face of the crosscut run

Chet Grand, one mile from the mine, renamed the Kenawee, has found it is a cross of a 200-foot shaft, with a 200-foot ledge running 27 to

is as high as $3000. This company who have been down the shaft that the ledge has been encountered, de-

be completed.The Mexican group in the Planet

increased with depth.The advent of the railroad is with much interest and many men will resume development

GEN. SHERMAN AND HIS GUESTS
RETURN FROM CUBA.Enthusiastic Over Delights of

Plantations and Caves—No Orange Competition, Says the Host.After a most enjoyable trip to many of the beautiful and interesting places
of the island of Cuba, Gen. M. H.
Sherman and a party of ten guests returned to Los Angeles yesterday.Gen. Sherman had as his guests his niece, Misses Lucy, Mary and Katherine Clark, 25, and Mrs. B. N. Pratt,
William R. Rowland, Miss Franceska
Chandler and Katherine, Harold and Howard Pratt.The party left Los Angeles more than a month ago and went direct to New Orleans. Several days were spent in the beautiful old southern city,
and a pleasure trip taken on the Mississippi River.From New Orleans they sailed for Havana, arriving there without accident."We were seeking a good time and I think we found it," said Gen. Sherman last night. "Our stay in Havana was a most pleasant one. We were entertained by the commanding officials and we saw everything that was worth seeing. We spent two weeks in and about Havana. We visited the famous sugar mills at Providencia, and drove through the great sugar plantations."Another pleasant outing was our visit to the caves at Matanzas. These caves are as beautiful as the famous caves of Kentucky and Indiana."We returned to Havana for another round of sight seeing and then sailed for the United States. I had ample opportunity while in Cuba to look into the orange output of the island, Cuba, as a possible competitor
to Southern California in the orange trade is out of the question. The oranges grown there are far inferior to those of Southern California in all respects. The crop is not large enough to supply even the demands of the island."Hon. William R. Rowland, who was a member of the party, was able to add much to the pleasant features of the trip through his knowledge of the Spanish language. Mr. Rowland speaks Spanish fluently and during the trips
through the country and the stay in Havana he made many friends among the Spaniards, learning many quaint legends and stories of the country and repeating them to his companions.HONOR FOR YOUNGWOORTH.

LAND FRAUD CHARGE.

Genes who profess the utmost confidence in him and they declare that his land deals in Oklahoma were conducted
in a fair and honest manner.
The local Federal authorities have
no knowledge of the specific charges
against Gates, beyond the fact that he
is accused of conspiring to defraud
the government of valuable tracts of land in Oklahoma.According to a special dispatch received by The Times from Guthrie
last night, the indictment charges
him with using school teachers as
"dummy" in homesteading large
tracts in Woodward and Harper counties, adjoining the Texas Panhandle
country.AGENT CONVICTED.
At a recent term of the United States District Court, at Guthrie, D. A.
Hallock, a Harvard graduate and the
agent of Gates, was convicted of sub-
ornation of perjury and sentenced to serve six years in the Federal prison
at Leavenworth, Kan., and to pay a fine of $1000. Immunity was given to twenty-four school teachers, who were witnesses against Hallock. It is supposed that the same witnesses will appear against Gates.According to the Federal officials,
a conspiracy was formed to acquire
several thousand acres of government
land to be used as a cattle range.
It is alleged that the conspirators
began operations about four years
ago. It is claimed that school teachers were asked to file on government
land and then to relinquish their
rights upon payment of nominal
sums. In the Hallock case they testified that they were unaware that they had violated the law. The payments for the alleged illegal entries
ranged from $300 to $500 a tract. A number of the teachers were women,
and they proved good witnesses for
the government. John Embury of Guthrie, United States District Attorney for that district, connected
with the case, reported the indictment of Gates' indictment. He stated that the evidence against Gates was similar in character to that presented against his agent, but he would not give any of the details.
The Hallock case is now pending in
the Circuit Court of Appeals.NEW CONFIDENCE GAME.
Professional Beggar Is Accused of Sealing from Good Samaritans
Who Gave Him Bed.Charged with having used a novel method for separating charitable-intent strangers and their valuables, Timothy P. Murphy, a professional beggar, was arrested yesterday, on complaint of S. J. Cook, a visitor from Hynes.Cook alleges that Murphy tried to steal $25 and a valuable stick pin from his bedroom. R. E. Hosmer of No. 129 South Los Angeles street has also filed a complaint against Murphy alleging a successful theft.Murphy approached Cook Tuesday night, and told a long and sad story about a lost fortune and a wrecked life. All he wanted was a place to sleep, and Cook could not refuse him.
He took Murphy to his room, and shared his bed with him.Cook missed the money when he woke up. Murphy was snoring peacefully, and was rudely awakened by the irate "Samaritan." He pleaded innocence and demanded that Cook search him. This was soon done, but the money and scarf pin could not be found.Cook then said he intended to turn Murphy over to the police, and that scared the accused man. He sent for a messenger, and the tie pin was returned. It is alleged that Murphy worked in partnership with the messenger who followed him to the room,
took the stolen property and departed. The police are looking for the messenger.Hosmer was treated in the same fashion and searched Murphy. When he failed to find his property he allowed the beggar to depart, believing that he might have lost the money
in a crowd.Pase Robles Hot Springs.

LAND FRAUD CHARGE.

Genes who profess the utmost confidence in him and they declare that his
land deals in Oklahoma were conducted
in a fair and honest manner.
The local Federal authorities have
no knowledge of the specific charges
against Gates, beyond the fact that he
is accused of conspiring to defraud
the government of valuable tracts of
land in Oklahoma.According to a special dispatch received by The Times from Guthrie
last night, the indictment charges
him with using school teachers as
"dummy" in homesteading large
tracts in Woodward and Harper counties, adjoining the Texas Panhandle
country.AGENT CONVICTED.
At a recent term of the United States District Court, at Guthrie, D. A.
Hallock, a Harvard graduate and the
agent of Gates, was convicted of sub-
ornation of perjury and sentenced to
serve six years in the Federal prison
at Leavenworth, Kan., and to pay a fine of $1000. Immunity was given to twenty-four school teachers, who
were witnesses against Hallock. It is supposed that the same witnesses will
appear against Gates.According to the Federal officials,
a conspiracy was formed to acquire
several thousand acres of government
land to be used as a cattle range.
It is alleged that the conspirators
began operations about four years
ago. It is claimed that school teachers were asked to file on government
land and then to relinquish their
rights upon payment of nominal
sums. In the Hallock case they testified that they were unaware that
they had violated the law. The payments for the alleged illegal entries
ranged from $300 to $500 a tract. A number of the teachers were women,
and they proved good witnesses for
the government. John Embury of Guthrie, United States District Attorney for that district, connected
with the case, reported the indictment of Gates' indictment. He stated that the evidence against Gates was similar in character to that
presented against his agent, but he
would not give any of the details.
The Hallock case is now pending in
the Circuit Court of Appeals.NEW CONFIDENCE GAME.

tations were issued to 100 members of the younger set and the clubhouse was decorated with quantities of spring blossoms. Music was furnished by Arnold. Miss Graves was also the honored guest at an informal dinner given at the clubhouse prior to the dance.

Health Returnings.
The many friends of Frederic W. Malle, assistant secretary of the Los Angeles Country Club, will be pleased to know that he is recovering from his recent painful accident.

Cope-Kerr Wedding.
Last evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Cope of No. 2281 Bellevue avenue, took place the wedding of Miss Frances Cope and J. A. H. Kerr of Redlands.

In the presence of 100 guests, Rev. Baker P. Lee, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, read the services at 8:30 o'clock. The bride wore an exquisite robe of white chiffon and satin, made empire and elaborately trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, and in her veil wore a cluster of orange blossoms. Mrs. Raymond D. Frieble assisted as matron and Miss Evangeline Cope, sister of the bride, as maid of honor. Both were attired in becoming pink satin dress gowns, elaborately trimmed and made empire. Their bouquets were of bride's maid roses. A. B. Jones was best man. Little Margaret Allen, in a pretty frock of white organdy and lace, carried a basket of rose petals. Owing to the social prominence of both principals, the wedding was of more than usual interest. The bride is a member of a distinguished southern family and has a host of friends here. The ceremony took place in the parlor of the home, where quantities of cherry blossoms and Easter lilies had been arranged with ferns. The dining-room was effectively decorated with pink roses and the library with pink peonies, white orange and cherry blossoms adorned the hall. Mr. and Mrs. Kerr will make a trip to the north and later reside in this city.

Take Hollywood House.
Mr. and Mrs. James Mullen of Chicago, the former a brother of the late Andrew Mullen of this city, have taken for one year the Bogardus residence, at the corner of Western avenue and Sunset boulevard, Hollywood.

Coming Wedding.
Announcement is made of the approaching wedding of Miss Sallie Cline, daughter of G. Cline, to Benjamin Bloomman of El Centro, which will be solemnized Sunday at the King Edward Hotel.

Farewell Compliment.
As a farewell compliment to Mr. and Mrs. John Lindley Phillips, who left recently for Denver, Mrs. Corolla Phillips entertained with a Spanish dinner.

ALL THE MEAT IN THE GOLDEN WHEAT

The "education" of the public has cost a lot of money, but it has not been in vain. Each year brings a larger consumption of whole wheat foods. We have done our share in the "educational campaign."

In conformity with a decision of the Secretary of Agriculture at Washington, the white flour millers have agreed to stop bleaching flour. Hereafter nothing but "golden" flour will be manufactured by the white flour millers.

You get all the rich, golden nutriment in the whole wheat when you eat

and you get it in a digestible form—the whole wheat, steam-cooked, shredded and baked—crisp, clean, nourishing, satisfying.

Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with a half pint of hot milk and a little fruit for breakfast will supply all the nutriment needed for a half day's work. Try it for ten mornings and see how much better you feel.

FACTS AND FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN

BY MISS SYDNEY FORD

I saw some French gowns yesterday from Paris, that fairly baffled description. Really, the word "gown" is at all adequate in this case. They would say "creations," rather. And these creations—made of yards and yards of soft silk and chiffon, and any embroidery and rare lace. They are simply distracting in their loveliness.

The first one I saw was from the later hand of Callot. Everybody in Paris who knows what to see his models before they commit themselves and, without realizing his power and presence, he is apt to be a bit slow in judging his creations—just to keep him on the anxious seat a while, and such a course also protects him from any possible tendency to copy his creations by other dress-makers, most of whom have their own openings before he brings out models.

Let's Color Combinations.
Callot is famous for his wonderful use of blue and gray and this particular gown gave a hint of the sea, soft, opalescent waves of blue-gray from falling over sundry and numerous layers of gauzy silk petticoates, linking to the figure just below the waist, and then falling in graceful folds and frills about the feet. The usual French fashion that all these models have and which is accomplished by gathering on shoulders and under the arms below the knees. One wonders how the wearer can manage to walk at all, but the elastic waist and yielding that it gives with every motion and simply ceases rather than the confines the dress and produces the clinging effect so much sought after. This marvelous chiffon gown was covered with a delicate and colored silks in and out of the class, while bands of gold lace added with iridescent and pearly shades seemed to hold the dress together. It cost—well, I heard it cost that cost exactly $400 just to get that gown in New York.

Elephant Frocks.
Such vagaries and fantasies of the imagination as we see worked out in our gowns, not only in our hats but in our gowns. Another of these such frocks was of black and white, and such a sensation in Paris on its appearance there last fall and winter. It was a black and white design in the shape of elephants done in gold thread. These extraordinary designs appear at intervals on the fashion, extending around the skirt and at one side. A touch of old rose appears on the corsege and enormous buttons larger than a silver dollar, state the high waist line in front.

Tailored French Frocks.
But all these ravishing creations are not the evening gowns. There were also designed for street wear as well. One of these was a Francis model, named by him who is acknowledged as the master of ladies' tailors in the gay French capital. The gown itself was a fashionable gray known as "elephant smoke," and over it, and to be worn with it, was a black and white square-cut coat lined with gray, which gave really two gowns. This smart smoke shade to the outfit. The coat was cut with a fairly plain back and was embroidered in gold in a cathedral design. A notable feature was that the sleeves were a trifle larger than those hitherto shown this season. For a carriage time or calling gown this Francis model was simply perfect.

Another street gown I saw was a Callot—a three-piece suit in two shades of lovely golden fawn-colored cashmere. It was a soft and silky that it seemed like a petrifaction of the thing. It was a thing about this gown was its simplicity. It was a thing about this gown was its simplicity. It was a thing about this gown was its simplicity.

Francis was represented in another way—an amethyst satin with a black and white sleeveless corsege. The dress was perfectly plain and fell in graceful sweeping lines from the shoulders. The corsege was a high waist line, to the feet. A pair of side seams, instead of being closed, were finished open and loose. A black and white heavy black and gold cord which was knotted at the hem and fell in two large tassels.

Then there was a Cheruit silk-linen suit in the natural shade which was extremely smart. The linen was like that of serge, with its oblique folds and of all things—this linen suit was lined with chiffon. What an odd conceit.

Advertising Field for Women.
It is probably not generally known, but the advertising campaign of one of the largest dry goods stores in Los Angeles is a woman. She began her work as an advertising agent here and is now well she handled matters. She eventually placed her at the head of the advertising department of the store. She is another girl who earned her way. She is another girl who earned her way. She is another girl who earned her way.

STOCK FEATURES FOR WOMEN

BY MISS SYDNEY FORD.

I saw some French gowns yesterday from Paris, that fairly baffled description. Really, the word "gown" is at all adequate in this case—I would say "creations," rather. And these "creations"—made of yards and yards of soft silk and chiffon, and very embroidery and rare lace. They are simply distracting in their loveliness.

The first one I saw was from the water land of Calicut. Everybody in the city knows that this model, which she wears, is a masterpiece of her power and presence, he is apt to be a bit slow in making his confections—just to keep the on the anxious seat a while. And such a creature also probably has from any possible tendency to copy his creations by other dressers, most of whom have their own openings before he brings out a model.

Miss's Color Combinations. One wonders how the wearer can manage to walk at all, but the elastic is so soft and yielding that it gives with every motion and simply coaxes rather than confines the skirts and produces a lovely effect so much like a billow after. This marvelous chiffon gown was heavily embroidered in red and colored silks in amethyst and white bands of gold lace edged with iridescent and pearl beads seemed to hold the filmy thing together. It cost—well, I heard it cost that it cost exactly $400 just to that gown in New York.

Director's. Another model which interested me was one by Marguerite Lacroix, who has created the Directoire which was a sensation in Paris on its appearance there last fall and which, however, above and beyond the fashion, represents the extreme of fashion. I want to know what is going to come next year," says one who looks at the Lacroix models. "You see the benefit of this advertisement as a forecast for next season. If any of you have been waiting and hoping for real waist lines to appear, then your wish is granted in this one of Lacroix's creations. The gown is destined, slightly, to be a medieval in the extreme. Not a sign of any sort of modernity appears from neck to hem. It is a straight piece, slightly flared at the hips, of rare, fine lace and net hung over gold and which sparkles and flashes brightly with every movement of the wearer.

Valued French Frocks. There are all these ravishing creations that are evening gowns as well as day frocks. There were designed for street wear as well. One of these was a Francis model—designed by him who is acknowledged as the "king" of ladies' tailors in the gay capital. For a carriage gown or calling gown this Francis model was simply perfect. I saw a Callot street gown I saw was a Callot three-piece suit in two shades of golden fawn-colored cashmere. The dress was soft and silky that it looked like a retired colobee. The thing about this gown was its cords, so large that they rolled like rolls, covered with the same gold or soutache. Imagine a cord of that size—about the neck, on the back and the sides. The upper part of the waist of the gown was of plain smoke shade a tint lighter than the dress itself, and fitted plainly to the bust.

There was represented in another gown an amethyst satin with a black shawl collar and a black belt. The dress was perfectly plain and fell in graceful sweeping lines from the shoulders down to the feet. A feature of the lace coat was that the sleeves were, instead of being laced, they were heavily black and gold cord which was knotted at the hem and fell in two large tassels.

There was a Cheruit silk-linen gown in the natural shade which was extremely smart. The linen was of that of serge, with its oblique stripes and of all things—this linen was lined with chiffon. What an odd model.

Advertising Field for Women. It is hardly not generally known, but an advertising manager of one of the best dry goods stores in Los Angeles is a woman. She began her career as an advertising firm here and she handled material placed her at the head of the advertising department. Another girl who earned her money by writing the advertisements for a woman's clothing store, she wrote catchy little jingles, rhyme, illustration and originated many of the things for calling the attention of the public to the store offered for sale.

Miss Jennie M. Babler of Lynn, Mass., a blind woman who has for years been instructing those similarly afflicted, has established a business college for the blind. She has realized that "her people," as she called them, would never be able to fill responsible places in the business world unless some method could be devised to give them the necessary training. With the object of supplying this training she has been devoting years of thought until now her plans are completed. She will have all the assistance she needs in her enterprise.

Mrs. C. F. Huntington proposes to give away the hill at Nob Hill, San Francisco, where the Huntington residence stood previous to the fire of 1906, but has not yet announced which public institution will be the beneficiary. As the lot is right on the crest of the hill and is really a full block, it will prove a royal gift to whatever institution may receive it.

L. W. Heilman of San Francisco has given $100,000 towards the erection of the new Mount Zion Hospital in that city, and has accompanied the gift with the injunction that he wants a first-class hospital building in every respect. The patients who may occupy the finished institution will undoubtedly have cause to thank Mr. Heilman for his interest in the enterprise.

By his will, James Milliken, banker and philanthropist, of Decatur, Ill., has left practically his entire estate of $1,500,000 to educational and charity purposes in the city of Decatur. To Decatur College of James Milliken University, to which Mr. Milliken gave $45,000 in the last six years of his life, is left $400,000, provided the Presbyterian Church gives to the school an equal amount within one year, the $800,000 to be used as an endowment fund.

MAKING STATE-WIDE FIGHT. Traveling Exhibit to Be Among the Features of the Campaign Against Tuberculosis. A traveling exhibit is one of the features of the State-wide campaign proposed by the California Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, plans for which are to be discussed at the State meeting to be held at San Jose the 25th inst. The exhibit will comprise photographs and charts showing methods of caring for tubercular patients in homes and sanatoriums, and means for prevention of the disease. The car will also be fitted with a lecture-room, and illustrated talks will be given by a competent person. A traveling exhibit has been employed with great success by the New York State Board of Health in the campaign against tuberculosis. It is possible in this manner to reach many places which are too small for an effective local organization. The association has been moving along vigorously, and a large attendance is promised at the State meeting. Local organizations have recently been formed in Alameda county.

The programme for the State meeting has not been completed, but an outline given by the secretary, Dr. George H. Kress of Los Angeles, shows that among other questions to be discussed are: The formation of societies in all the cities of California, the use of educational literature in the schools, cooperation with the State Board of Health, lectures before clubs, a traveling exhibit, compulsory registration and fumigation, city dispensaries for poor consumptives, distribution of literature, and measures of public support. The bill passed by the last Legislature, providing for the compulsory registration of consumptives, was vetoed by the Governor, and the State association will discuss plans for continuing the agitation and securing a larger measure of public support. Dr. Kress received a letter yesterday from the Washington Association for the Prevention and Relief of Tuberculosis, asking for contributions for an exhibit to be made at the Alaska-Tukon-Pacific Exposition at Seattle. An appropriation for an exhibit by the Board of Health of Washington has been made by the exposition company, and half of it is to be devoted to tuberculosis. In evidence of the effectiveness of the educational campaign which has been in progress throughout the entire country for some years, local physicians cite the approving comment of other newspapers on the decision of the Los Angeles authorities to prevent this city being made in the future a State sanatorium for tubercular patients. Several years ago such action, the doctors say, would have brought out severe criticism.

CHILDREN'S EDUCATION.
The Congress Begins on Its New Work.
Would Help Youngsters to Climb Upward.
"Reciprocity Day" Ceremonies Prove Success.
Over a thousand mothers of Los Angeles and vicinity observed "Reciprocity Day" yesterday in the auditorium of Polytechnic High School.
The feature of the day was the induction of a new branch of the work of the Congress of Mothers,
to be known as the Mutual Benefit Branch. It is being put into effect by Mrs. H. C. Waddell.
The purpose of this work of the congress is to raise a fund
from which deserving children may be provided with scholarships, books, clothing and other necessities in their effort to become independent, self-sustaining and competent young men and women. Every child in the city is eligible to membership in this Mutual Benefit Branch. The payment of the small fee of 5 cents per month entitles them to the privilege of taking part in the work.
The Mutual Benefit Branch is attracting much interest throughout the city for its far-reaching effects are evidently realized. Many women from the work of the Mothers' Congress has never before appealed, have found into line with the new movement. Mrs. Chalmers Smith is chairman, and is assisted by Mrs. H. C.
Waddell, who told of the object and purpose of the department to the mothers yesterday.
THINKS GIRLS OVERDRESSED.
The morning's programme consisted of a symposium of answers given to questions, which arise in the work of the Mothers' Congress. One of the most interesting of these was asked by Mrs. H. C. Waddell.
"How Would a More Simple Dress for the School Girl Aid Character Building?" The speaker was in favor of a more simple dress,
she said that in her opinion the American schoolgirl is overdressed, and that a more simple dress would be a great help to the school system.
When it is a simple dress, she said,
the child is not tempted to wear expensive clothes, and the school system is not burdened with the cost of expensive dresses.
The question treated most ably
by Mrs. Dana Bartlett. She said that the child is overdressed,
and that the school system is burdened with the cost of expensive dresses. She said that the child is not tempted to wear expensive clothes, and the school system is not burdened with the cost of expensive dresses.
PATRIOTISM OF PEACE.
The altruistic child, Mrs. Bartlett said, is the result of prayer, of high character, of hope, of education, of culture, and he must be taught that the virtues are worth more to the world than even the power of leadership, and that to live for others is more than to be a great general or leader of industry. She addressed the mothers on "Patriotism," saying that the child of peace, as well as a man of war, and that it was a man and not a negative quality.
Mrs. Lickley, who is a director of compulsory education department of the city schools, asked the question, "Should the School Give More Effort to Moral Training?"
She said that the chief object of the school system is to turn out good citizens, and that the crying need of our educational system is for more moral training.
THE LARGEST MOTHERHOOD.
The afternoon programme included addresses by Mrs. Claudine R. Mann of Orange, N. J., a prominent club woman and speaker in the National Mothers' Congress, and Bertha H.
Mann, Mrs. Mann chose for her subject, "The Largest Motherhood."
"Motherhood," she said, "is the highest office a woman may attain, and never before in the history of the world was a woman's work as valuable more needed than now, and that I mean much more than her charge of her children. She must perform the duties of a mother, and embrace the children of the world,
and still further keep under constant observation the higher things of life."
THEATER FOR CHILDREN.
Mrs. Baruch spoke of the need of a theater for children in Los Angeles.
The enthusiasm proved contagious,
and the mothers present, for they attended the speaker.
One of the most enjoyable features of the day's exercises was the singing of the girls of the Glee Club at the Normal School. These young ladies, in white gowns, and wearing a great bunch of violets tucked in her belt, presented an exquisite picture on the stage.
While their singing was given in splendid fashion, that several en-cores were necessary. Miss Jennie entertaining features of "Reciprocity Day" were delightful readings
by Mrs. C. Q. Stanton, instrumental music by Miss Ada Street, and music by the Ladies' Quartette of Pa-sal, composed of Misses F. Carter and Edith Chambers and Misses J. Hendrickson and Daniel Johnson.
The officers of the Mothers' Congress who occupied seats on the platform, during the exercises were: Honorary president, Mrs. W. W. Murphy; president, Mrs. Chalmers Smith; first vice-president, Mrs. D. G. Stephens;
second vice-president, Mrs. D. K.
Bullant; fourth vice-president,
Mrs. A. L. Hamilton; fifth vice-president, Mrs. Mary O'Neil; recording secretary, Mrs. A. B. Glaser; auditory, Mrs. A. Vercor; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Frank W. Blair; auditory, Mrs. C. C. Noble; historian, Mrs.
C. Twining; regent, Mrs. J. F.
Davis Gibbs.
The five circles of the Mothers' Congress have been formed since the beginning of Reciprocity Day last year.
INTERNATIONAL COMPLICATIONS.
An Alleging He Was Denied Jury Trial.
MARCH 21.—The arrest of Sam Peter, an Armenian, for being without a license, has created international complications.
The county ordinance
requires a license for anyone driving a motor car. Peter, who was arrested, was sentenced to fifty days in the county jail, or to a fine of $100.
Peter's attorneys have been denied a jury trial, in which the Armenian claimed that he was not granted

The list of Pacific Coast special ex-

Mr. Flint returned from San Francisco, yesterday where he passed several days arranging important details of the convention. He has succeeded in securing special rates to Los Angeles from over twenty parts of the State, and says the lodges in San Francisco, Oakland, and other bay cities will put forth their best efforts in making the celebration a great success. Nearly a score of special trains will reach here Saturday, July 10 from points north of the Tehachapi. The State Elks will number about 500, and Mr. Flint is anxious to have them here before the trains from the East begin to arrive.
PADEREWSKI DOWNCAST.
NEW YORK, March 21.—Fear that the stroke of "piano player's" cramp,"
which had caused him to cut short his concert tour in this country might disable him for the remainder of his life, was expressed by Ignace Paderewski,
the noted pianist, at the time of his departure for Europe yesterday
on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse.
"I may never return to America," said
Mr. Paderewski sadly. "At any rate,
I shall never probably play for the next two years. During that time I shall try to console myself by composing an opera."

Scott's Emulsion
probably saved this child's life. Four doctors had been tried. SCOTT'S EMULSION seemed to be just the thing needed, and it is just the thing needed by thousands of other children. It's so easily digested, so pure and harmless, yet most powerful in building up the most delicate child or adult. But be sure to get SCOTT'S EMULSION, there are so many worthless and harmful imitations.

FLORIDA LOVERS TO HAVE TREAT.
GARDENERS' ASSOCIATION SHOW TO BE SPLENDID.

Exhibit of M. E. Huntington Will Be Feature—Society Members to Act as Judges—Campaign Address by Waterhouse—Reception to Former Vice-President Fairbanks.

PASADENA, April 1.—Mayor Earley will open the fourth annual spring flower show of the Pasadena Gardeners' Association at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Evidence at the big tents on Green street and surrounding streets from those who know indicate that it will be the largest flower show ever given on this Coast.

An interesting insight into the character of Henry E. Huntington, who has been the subject of a book by the late Mrs. Huntington, may be found in his exhibit, which will prove the feature of the show. This man of affairs has spent a small fortune in rare plants for the improvement of his estate near the city of Los Angeles.

The Huntington exhibit is in charge of his head gardener, William Hertrich, who has been a night watchman for many years. He is now turning his attention to plants, making a specialty of palms.

This is Encarnacion Pungens, said Hertrich, pointing to a wonderful palm that looks like a huge pineapple, with tufted leaves protruding from the apex. The plant is a native of the Philippines and is one of the most beautiful of the family.

Alfred Nelson, gardener at Carmichael, is exhibiting a fine collection of cacti. He has a large number of the most beautiful of the family, including the Saguaro, the Cholla, and the Palo Verde.

MANIC FIGHTS DESPERATELY ON LONG BEACH PIER.

After Knocking Down Girl Whom He Believed Unfaithful Cook Tries to Leap Into Ocean, But Is Strained by Two Men—Now in Padded Cell.

LONG BEACH, March 31.—Beet with jealous rage at the thought that his young victim had been unfaithful to him, and frenzied with fear that his relations with her were likely to end in a tragedy, the madman, who is now in a padded cell at the Long Beach hospital, fought desperately on the pier.

Two young men, Charles Schilling and Walter Newell, seized the would-be self-slayer. In an instant he became a prisoner, and was taken to the hospital. The madman, who is now in a padded cell at the Long Beach hospital, fought desperately on the pier.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.) TROPICO, March 31.—August Shomer, dairyman living near this place, shot and killed Mrs. Mary Austin, at her ranch on the San Fernando Road, near Burbank, early this morning. He then killed himself. The double tragedy is supposed to have been the result of the woman's refusal to become his business partner.

The dairyman is believed to have been harassed by financial troubles. He left with his wife three letters. One is addressed to Dan Campbell, Grand Master of Unity Lodge at Glendale; one to the Corner and one to the clerk of the Modern Woodmen's camp at Los Angeles. The purpose of the letters is said to have been that the writer had no friends, was tired of life and intended to commit suicide.

Shomer has known Mrs. Austin, who was a widow, for four years, and had repeatedly asked her to come to his aid in his dairy business. Neglecting his duties, she had been walking the distance between his home and the woman's house, after telling his wife that "this thing must end soon."

He found Mrs. Austin in her kitchen with her son Fred, a professional broker, but recently returned from a world tour. The three talked for some time, and Mrs. Austin rose to give her husband a letter. At the same time, Fred Austin left the house to go to the barn.

A few moments later, he heard a shot and running into the yard, saw his mother stagger from the kitchen, with Shomer close behind her. Shomer, who was carrying a revolver, fired a second time. The woman cried, "He's shot me, Fred," and fell to the ground.

The dairyman turned back into the house. Near the front door there is a hall. The dairyman, who was carrying a revolver, fired a second time. The woman cried, "He's shot me, Fred," and fell to the ground.

Pile Drivers Pounding Hard in Effort to Get Playa del Rey Ready for Summer.

PLAYA DEL REY, March 31.—With the pile drivers hammering away, and a force of thirty men at work, it became to look very much as though the new pier would be in position to accommodate at least its share of the summer crowd. Stone is being hauled in for the breakwater to protect the new pier. One pier will have a length of 1,000 feet, and the other will be extended for a distance of 800 feet.

Commodore Lawton has closed the contract for one of the big early summer picnics. The Young Men's Association will have a picnic on the pier. The visitors will number 200 and there will be a programme of athletic contests and sports made with baseball and tug of war as side attractions.

Mr. Lawton has just secured from the Supervisors the liquor privileges for Santa Monica and Rustic cañons. The season closed last year before the plans for the building of the miniature railway line from Port Los Angeles could be developed, but the announcement is now made that the attractions of the cañon this season.

It is necessary to repaint the auditorium, and the Council has asked for a budget of $25,000 for the purpose. The auditorium, with Venetian red trimmings, has shocked the artistic sense of the city.

A NEW LOS ANGELES ENTERPRISE OF VITAL COMMERCIAL IMPORTANCE TO CITY

LOCAL MEN OF MEANS BACKING THE PROJECT AND OFFERING LIMITED ALLOTMENT OF SHARES TO THE SMALL INVESTOR. THIS IS THE COMPANY WHOSE NEW PLANT WAS SHOWN IN THIS PAPER TWO SUNDAYS AGO.

The California Glass and Soda Manufacturing Company, whose big modern plant is pictured in this paper a few Sundays ago, is showing great activity in its initial movements. The preliminary work of organizing and planning has been consummated and now the men are going forward with their project, which means that before many months Los Angeles will have a modern window glass making plant in operation.

The establishment of this important industry is of vital significance to this whole southwestern section, for it means the emancipation of Los Angeles and its tributary wholesale markets from the market of the East. The ringing commendation of the local wholesaler and large user of window and architectural glass is evidence that every particle of glass made by this new factory will be bought and distributed by local firms. Without exception, every one seen has spoken in most enthusiastic terms of the prospect of being able to buy their wholesale supply of glass right here in the city, and it is readily understood, for when they can take down their telephone each day and order instantly what they want and have it delivered at once, or made up for them, without the long three or more months' delay, and the ninety cents per hundred weight in freight to pay, with an extra five or ten per cent, in breakage because of the haul from Eastern factories. In talking with the President of the California Glass and Soda Manufacturing Company, he told the writer that the Carrier of freight and haul alone on the product of their factory, saved because they were held in their possession enough to keep a plant ten times as large as they contemplate building, busy every day.

It would not surprise the writer some day the finest plate glass in crystal line were made here, for the deposits of raw material owned by the company are the purest in the world. Just such materials as the famous glass factories of France and Belgium use in their finest wares.

The company has just published a booklet on glass making that is full of vital information and the writer giving a coupon herewith so that the secretary will send you this booklet and keep your copy of the booklet. This is a very profitable enterprise.

California Glass and Soda Mfg. Co. 507-S Grand Building, Los Angeles, Cal. Gentlemen: Kindly send me your Booklet and other information about your new enterprise. I may be interested in investing in some of your stock if it should prove satisfactory.

COMPROMISE IS AGAIN URGED.
COURT GIVES ADVICE TO COL AND MRS. CLOPTON.

Thinks Family Differences Should Be Arranged in Private—Mrs. Modjeska Refuses to Be Moved to Los Angeles Hospital—Conductor and brakeman fight.

SANTA ANA, March 31.—For the second time Superior Judge West has advised Col. Hoggatt CLOPTON of Huntington Beach, and his wife, Mrs. Jennie CLOPTON, of Long Beach, to settle their case out of court. Evidence is in and arguments are for May 1, but the judge advised the litigants to come to an agreement. He gave almost advice three months ago, but without effect.

This time the judge gave his opinion that the pre-nuptial contract between the two, by which Mrs. CLOPTON should get seven-tenths of CLOPTON's estate, is a worthless one. Because of this, Mrs. CLOPTON, who has refused to compromise, may never see clear to a settlement out of court.

In her testimony yesterday, she told of harsh treatment accorded her by Col. CLOPTON. She asks $300 a month in alimony. CLOPTON asks for divorce. Mrs. CLOPTON says she has been married to her husband for 15 years, and that her husband had devoted all his property to his children to keep her from a share of the estate.

MRS. MODJESKA PREFERRED HOME. Today, when the subject of having removed from Bay Island to the hospital of the Good Samaritan in Los Angeles was broached, Mrs. Modjeska refused to be persuaded to look upon the change as a favor. She declared she preferred staying in her own cottage and there making the fight against the disease from which she is suffering. Arrangements for the journey to the hospital were completed yesterday, but madams was not told the plans until yesterday afternoon. Little hope is entertained for his ultimate recovery.

SUIT OVER NOTE. Claiming that C. T. Gifford, a notary public of Redlands, failed to give title to the surplus on a $50,000 note at it was dishonored, the Consolidated Lumber Company has brought suit in this county against Gifford for the amount of the note, $50,000. On September 20, 1908, L. E. Huber gave the lumber company a note, with C. F. L. Kinner and J. E. Seaton as guarantors, for $50,000. It was turned over to Gifford, the First National Bank of Redlands, for deposit. Gifford dishonored the note, and is now being sued by the lumber company.

FIGHT IN CABOOSE. Long W. H. Hester, a brakeman, with cuts on his head, was brought to the hospital here today, unconscious. He and Joseph Huber, a conductor, fought on a Southern Pacific freight train coming from Norwalk to Los Angeles. The fight was a bad one, and the result was that Hester was injured. He is now in the hospital, and Huber is being held in the caboose.
